

AN INVITATION...

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to extend a personal invitation to all our members to attend the 2010 Annual Conference. This year the conference will be located at Voorhees Chapel, a Georgian Colonial Chapel in the Christopher Wren tradition, founded in 1925, one of the most distinctive buildings on Douglas campus, Rutgers University.

Our Board joins us in encouraging you to attend an exceptional Conference program planned this year for you. The conference is one of the many benefits for you - the NJMTA members. You will be treated to outstanding Master Classes, Workshops and Concerts performed and conducted by the outstanding guest artists we have invited. We promise you that you will be stimulated and enriched by the special programs that entailed here. Please do capture the great opportunity to attend the 2010 State Conference and together we will share a wonderful weekend indulging ourselves and evident how the artistry and practicality work hand-in-hand. Looking forward to seeing you at the conference!
